Piano Performance Classes

Dear Parents and Students,

If your students haven't yet seen the newly re-modeled Recital Hall, we hope that they get the chance during the upcoming Performance Class weeks!

Now that school has started, the calendar is quickly getting busier at Coppell Conservatory too. Please read the newsletter carefully for all upcoming dates!

We are happy to welcome four new teachers to our staff this year – Ms. Brown, Mr. Gilstrap, Dr. Grynia, and Ms. Liu. They all three have had wonderful first weeks of teaching and are excited for this year! If you see them, please welcome them!

Thank you to all of you for your continued support this school year and your confidence in us. It has been wonderful hearing about the new school year and seeing everyone regularly!

Best Regards,
Liana Bramlett, Director

What is a Performance Class?

A performance class is an opportunity for your child, along with their peers, to gather in the Recital Hall and learn how to perform in front of an audience. This helps them build confidence for future recitals. They also learn many other skills, including, how to listen to themselves when they practice. For the best interest of students, observers are not permitted in the Recital Hall during the performance classes. If your child is not enrolled in the musicianship class, there is a small fee charged. Performance classes last 30 - 45 minutes. You will receive an email from Sign Up Genius approximately two weeks before the performance class.
